

UWA Conservatorium of Music Ensemble Contact List 2018

Disclaimer:

Some members of the ensembles listed may be students of the UWA Conservatorium of Music, which conducts auditions for entry to music courses. The groups are not professional performers however, and you should discuss your requirements with them and decide whether they are suitable for your event, as the Conservatorium of Music cannot be held responsible for any adverse outcomes.

Meraki Saxophone Quartet*new music - old music - reimagined music

Bridget Cleary, Mia Vukovic, Kieran Toye and Tessa Campbell

- Meraki is an award winning Perth-based saxophone quartet that has a dedication to creativity and ingenuity. Bridget, Mia, Kieran and Tessa work together to bring to the community music flowing with intelligence, love, soul and power.

Quartet With A Twist*Classical/Pop

Sarah Papadopoulos (Violin), Jane Cameron (Violin), Rachel Hicks (Viola), Ebony Lim (Double Bass)

- Quartet With A Twist (QWAT) is a string quartet that provides entertainment for any occasion. With their fun personalities and high calibre of musicianship, they can deliver the string quartet music you need for your next event.
- The 'Twist' in QWAT's name stands for their unconventional instrumentation – instead of the standard two violins, viola and cello, the cello has been replaced with a double bass! As a result, QWAT's sound is unique and sets them apart from other string quartets.
- QWAT's talented players have all graduated successfully from the University of Western Australia with a Bachelor of Arts – Specialist Music Studies and Music Studies. Having formed as a group in their first year, the quartet has now been playing together for five years.
- They are also engaged in many orchestral positions around Perth, including the Perth Symphony Orchestra, West Australian Youth Orchestra, UWA Symphony Orchestra, Vienna Pops Orchestra, and the Chamber Orchestra of St George's College – just to name a few.
- Whether it is your next wedding, event or corporate function, Quartet With A Twist has got you covered.

Matilda Quartet*Classical Music

- 🎵 The Matilda Quartet consists of a selection of four string students currently completing their honorary studies at the University of Western Australia. After forming the group for purely university assessment purposes, the members have grown a love of performing together and have since expanded their performance outside of the walls of the university. As a result, they have shared the pleasure of performing at many different events. These include the privilege of performing during the interval at Musica Viva's performance by the Jerusalem quartet, as well as receiving tutelage from the Enso Quartet in their 2016 master class. With their collective love and experience in performing these musicians are sure to provide added ambience needed for your next event.
