COVER: Arianne Jacobs
UWA Music Student (cello)
LEFT: Professor Alan Lourens
Head of School
The exceptional ability of young emerging artists and their passion for music will always create an extraordinary experience for concertgoers. In 2017 four outstanding orchestral and choral concerts will feature Western Australia’s finest young musicians.

Music on the Terrace
Ludwig, Amadeus & Joe

Sunday 9 April
4.00pm
Government House Ballroom

Following the incredible success of our 2015 and 2016 collaborations, the UWA School of Music team up again with Mark Coughlan and the Government House Foundation to present a concert of classical favourites, plus a brand new commission by composer Joe Chindamo, featuring the amazing Shaun Lee-Chen (violin).

Mozart: Serenade No. 12 for Winds
Chindamo: PALIMPSEST (WORLD PREMIERE)
Beethoven: Symphony No. 2

All tickets $35

Sensation

Monday 22 May
7.30pm
Perth Concert Hall

The exceptional ability of our young emerging artists is celebrated as three young performers compete in the finals of the prestigious VOSE Concerto Competition. To complete the program the UWA Symphony Orchestra will be joined on stage by the Symphonic Chorus of UWA and talented school choristers to present Stravinsky’s masterpiece Symphony of Psalms.

VOSE Memorial Prize Finalists
Stravinsky: Symphony of Psalms

Not the Messiah
(He’s a very naughty boy)

Wednesday 1 November
7.30pm
Perth Concert Hall

It’s the Messiah – but not as you know it!

Based on the hugely popular musical satire Monty Python’s Life of Brian, and encompassing musical styles as varied as classical chorus and doo-wop, this comic oratorio featuring full orchestra, chorus and soloists (including a very special guest narrator) is sure to delight!

Standard $25
Concessions $20
